How should we dress for Mass?

Parishioners come to Mass dressed quite casually these days. Some wear shorts, sandals, old jeans, or gym shoes. What is proper and respectful church attire?

When I was a child, my father always wore a dress shirt and tie to church, my mother wore a dress, and my eight brothers and sisters and I were also impeccably dressed.

Times certainly have changed. We're a much more casual society. That being said, I think it's good for people to dress up for Mass. Parents need to set an example for their children and get into the habit of wearing their "Sunday best"—even if it's Saturday evening.

The Church, being universal, does not have an official dress code. "Appropriate attire" in the jungles of Brazil is very different from appropriate attire in New York City. We must be sensitive to culture and to financial situations. Also, what is not appropriate for Easter Sunday morning may be fine for a Sunday night teen Mass.

I think we need to speak up when someone is dressed inappropriately, but do so in a kind manner and avoid being judgmental. A sign in the back of Church or an occasional announcement in the bulletin may be a better alternative. Try something like, "Summer is here, but remember when you dress for Mass that church isn't the beach."

We show respect at Church events by our participation and in the way we dress.

Fourth Sunday of Easter May 11, 2014

Hearing the voice of Christ.

Peter addressed the crowds gathered for the Pentecost celebration in Jerusalem. Emboldened by the Holy Spirit, Peter proclaims that the One who was crucified was the One whom God had sent. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that he is the gate through whom we should pass to have abundant life and the only voice that we should heed.

Mural: Our long awaited Mural Restoration project is scheduled to begin on May 26th. Scaffolding will be erected to cover the entire Sanctuary area of our church as well as the two side altars. Repairs to the cracks and all surface preparation will be done first. The entire project is expected to be completed around the middle of September. Our plan is to continue to have our full Mass schedule in church. We will not have Adoration on Monday's for the duration of this project. Our last Monday Adoration will be on May 19th. Funding has been made through donations specifically for this project as well as donations made in memory of deceased Parishioners.
