Am I already "saved"?

My neighbor is a fundamentalist Christian. He said I won't be "saved" unless I accept Jesus as my personal savior. Didn't Jesus become my savior when I was baptized?

Your neighbor is probably referring to John 3:7, when Jesus told Nicodemus, "You must be born anew." Jesus is talking about a spiritual rebirth; we must have a spiritual birth in order to be saved. As you have correctly noted, Catholics believe this happens at baptism. In John 3:5, Jesus says, "No one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit."

We are saved by the waters of baptism. But for Catholics, it's not merely a one-time event. We continue to accept or reject the salvation offered us by the decisions we make every day.

Your neighbor used the words "personal savior." Catholic Christians go even deeper through the sacraments. We develop and nurture a very personal relationship with Jesus by regularly receiving the Eucharist. In the sacrament of reconciliation, we admit we have sinned and ask Jesus to forgive us. And in the sacrament of confirmation, our relationship is "sealed" with the gift of the Spirit.

Many Catholics also celebrate the sacrament of marriage. The couple's personal relationship with Jesus is deepened through the love the couple shares.

So tell your neighbor you are indeed saved by Jesus. And because you are saved, you deepen that relationship with Jesus by living a sacramental life.

Seventh Sunday of Easter June 1, 2014

Before his death, Jesus prayed to the Father so that all who believe in him may have eternal life.

In today's Gospel, we see that Jesus prays to the Father. It is this earnest prayer that reveals the love that Jesus had for humanity. The theme of prayer is echoed in the first reading as the disciples gathered after the Ascension.

As Jesus prepared to leave this world, he offered his prayer to the Father. Jesus prayed for humanity and he prayed that he would be glorified. Later, the disciples of Jesus gathered and prayed. We can also pray for ourselves. One of our prayers could be that we will one day dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
