How do I choose a Bible?

I went online to buy a Bible and was immediately overwhelmed by the number available. How do I choose one?

Every family should have a printed Bible—not just a nice book to put on the coffee table, but one they actually pick up and read.

The most obvious way to spot a Catholic translation is that “Catholic Edition” is printed on the cover, but you can also tell by the imprimatur on the copyright page and the presence of the deuterocanonical books of the Bible—1 and 2 Maccabees, Tobit, Judith, Sirach, Wisdom of Solomon, Baruch, and additional parts of Daniel and Esther—which aren’t found in Protestant versions of the Bible. Some call these books the apocrypha, which means “hidden,” a term often used to refer to noninspired books.

Even though several Protestant versions of the Bible are very good, from a Catholic standpoint they’re incomplete.

Several Catholic translations are available, but the version used at Mass—the one you’re probably most familiar with—is the New American Bible, revised edition, published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. A free online version is available on the USCCB website (usccb.org/bible/). The online version is helpful when you can remember a verse but not where to find it. The website also has daily readings, podcasts, and other features that will help you move closer to God through Scripture.

Saint Peter & Paul, Apostles Solemnity

June 29, 2014

Saint Peter and Saint Paul tell us of the abiding love of God.

The first reading from Acts is an account of the persecution of Peter and his miraculous escape from jail. The second reading is from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy reminding us of the promise of eternal life for those faithful to Christ. The Gospel is Matthew's account of Jesus naming Peter the rock of his Church.
