Who is Dorothy Day?

A friend sent me a copy of a newspaper called The Catholic Worker. It was founded by one of his heroes, Dorothy Day. What can you tell me about her?

Dorothy Day was born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1897. She finished high school at age sixteen and joined the Socialist Party in 1914 as a college student. She converted to Catholicism in 1927.

During the Great Depression, Dorothy's commitment to the poor deepened. In 1932 she met Peter Maurin, with whom she founded the Catholic Worker Movement. In 1933 she created The Catholic Worker newspaper, through which she proclaimed the rights of workers to dignity and to fair and honest treatment by industry and government, landlords, and neighbors. Her pro-labor and anti-war beliefs caused her to be labeled a Communist, but she was never a member of the Communist Party.

Dorothy's concern for social justice grew—among other things, she worked with Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers. She was orthodox and pious and had a deep sense of Catholic morality.

She died in 1980. In 2000, Pope John Paul II granted the Archdiocese of New York permission to open a cause for Dorothy Day's sainthood. That cause, which is still open, was endorsed in 2012 by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, who called her "a saint for our time."

AUGUST 31, 2014
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Salvation comes from allowing God to seduce us.

Jeremiah cries out that God seduced him for the faith, he cannot avoid preaching. Saint Paul urges the Romans to not be shaped by the culture and make themselves the sacrifice they offer in everything they do. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus predicts his passion and calls the disciples to commit completely to God, even if it means martyrdom.

If work needs to be done to a headstone or grave you must first contact Charles Posinski.

God calls us to sacrifice everything for him. In every little thing that happens during our day, we should sacrifice our own interests to be more like Christ. That may mean we are the object of ridicule or may be at odds with the modern culture. Knowing that the will of God is perfect, we endure these daily martyrdoms freely given in love.
